4.3 ELECTION CAMPAIGNING

INTRODUCTION:

It is in the best interest of the Association to give all candidates every opportunity to provide information about their candidacy to Delegates and other participants at the Annual Meeting of the Delegate Assembly. But to ensure that campaigning will not be disruptive to other business of the Annual Meeting of the Delegate Assembly, the following guidelines on individual campaigning for office must be followed.

POLICY:

1. Information about all nominees for seats on the Board of Directors and the next year's Nominating Committee shall be published on the ASWB website at least 30 days before the voting date. Delegates, Member Board chairs, and Member Board administrators will be notified when the information is available. The information will include a photo, a brief biography, and a description of the candidate's involvement with the Association, as well as a candidate statement. With editing as needed for grammar, spelling, and space, the material is taken directly from forms submitted by each candidate.
2. Candidates shall be introduced on the first day of the Annual Meeting of the Delegate Assembly, when additional nominations may be made from the floor. ASWB staff shall make provisions for nominations from the floor at online meetings in consultation with the President and Chief Executive Officer, with the advisement of ASWB legal counsel.
3. Time shall be provided for brief speeches by the candidates in attendance or for electronic speeches by absentee candidates before the vote is taken. If the meeting is held online, speeches may be recorded and made available to attendees before the election.
4. Campaigning is restricted to the time of the Annual Meeting of the Delegate Assembly and may begin at the welcome reception of the Delegate Assembly but not before. To ensure candidates have equal access to Delegates, no soliciting for votes is to be done in advance.
5. Candidates may produce written campaign materials at their own expense. Campaign-related materials may be distributed at times that will not disrupt the business of the Delegate Assembly and worn during the meeting.
6. Candidates may talk with potential voters in meeting rooms before the meeting is called to order, outside at breaks, at meals, and at any other time that individual conversations are appropriate. Activities must not be carried out while the Delegate Assembly is in session in any way that would be disruptive to the meeting.
7. Candidates shall not include campaign materials in the annual meeting materials and information distributed by Association staff, nor may they ask staff to assist in any distribution of campaign materials.
8. No campaigning of any kind is to be done in the immediate area of the registration table at in-person meetings.

IV. Conduct of Business

9. In the case of an online meeting, candidate campaign-related materials and written statements produced at the candidate's expense will be available through a platform determined by ASWB. No electronic campaigning outside the election platform is allowed.

4.4 ASSOCIATION SERVICE AWARDS PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION:

Regulation of the practice of social work in the Association's member jurisdictions is done in great part by volunteer Member Board members and Member Board staff in each jurisdiction. Additionally, there are individuals who make major contributions to public protection who are not ASWB Member Board members or staff. Each year the Association shall publicly acknowledge Member Board members, administrators, and staff of social work regulatory boards who have demonstrated extraordinary commitment to public protection in work with their boards. Adopted October 2002. Revised by the Board of Directors August 2012, January 2016, January 2018, January 2019, April 2021, April 2022.

4.5 VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION

INTRODUCTION:

The Association was founded by the efforts of unpaid volunteers who were willing to give their time and effort to begin an association that would help its Member Boards to do the best possible job of social work regulation. Almost all the Association's programs, from the examinations on, began with volunteer ideas and volunteer work.

While there is no way to compensate people appropriately for this work, the Association shall offer public recognition and awards to those who serve each year.

POLICY:

1. Each year, the Association shall recognize volunteers who have served the Association on task forces and committees.
2. Those who serve on committees and task forces and the ASWB Board of Directors shall be recognized for their service during the Annual Meeting of the Delegate Assembly during the year they serve and will receive awards after their work on a particular body is completed.
3. Since the Examination Committee does intense work for the Association, with multiple meetings each year, members will receive special awards unique to that committee. Members will be given the awards during one of the final Examination Committee meetings of the year, after they have served their appointed term.
4. Because members of the Regulatory Education and Leadership (REAL) Committee are appointed to a one-year term, they will receive their awards at the Association Education Conference that they are charged with planning or in May if no meeting is held.

Adopted October 2002. Revised October 2004, August 2012, January 2016, January 2017, January 2019.
