Introduction

This report identifies where states have educational requirements for social work licensure that are in addition to a qualifying degree from a program acceptable to the licensing authority. These requirements generally emphasize specific course content areas which must be fulfilled and may also include designated hours for practicum experience.

The Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) maintains a database of social work regulatory requirements in the United States and Canada. The information is published online at www.aswb.org. To access requirements for regulated licenses, click on the link “Detailed Reports: Compare license information.” Jurisdictional requirements and policies can be found using the link “Detailed Reports: Compare Jurisdiction Information.”

Summary

The educational credentials required to satisfy state social work licensure requirements center on a degree from a program recognized by the licensing authority. Nearly every state identifies degree programs accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) as meeting licensure education requirements; however, some states may also recognize other accrediting bodies. The only exception is New York, for its clinical license, where the required degree is from a program in social work that is registered with the New York Education Department. Otherwise New York clinical applicants with a master’s degree from CSWE or another recognized body may be required to complete additional clinical course work. Additionally, for the clinical license, ten states require a master’s degree accredited by CSWE but also specify course content and/or field practicum experience that must be obtained as part of the graduate program or additional post-graduate studies. These states include Florida, Indiana, Kansas, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, South Carolina, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. Maine requires an additional period of supervision for nonclinical masters degrees. Virginia provides an alternate pathway for clinical license applicants without a CSWE-accredited master’s degree with a clinical concentration; applicants can satisfy education requirements by completing additional post-graduate course work.

Florida, New York, and South Carolina have additional educational requirements for the masters license. All three accept a master’s degree from a CSWE-accredited program. In Florida, the program must emphasize direct clinical practice or agency administration. New York identifies specific curricular content and requires at least 60 semester hours of graduate study. Additionally, a field practicum of at least 900 hours is required. South Carolina’s advanced macro practice masters license requires at least ninety academic contact hours of course work in advanced social work practice with communities and organizations.

Ohio is the only state identified to have education requirements for the bachelors license that extend beyond a bachelor’s degree from an approved program. Ohio specifies semester hour requirements in several content areas. They also require at least 400 hours of supervised field experience.

For additional information, relevant state statutes and regulations are provided in the following section.

(1) CLINICAL SOCIAL WORK. Upon verification of documentation and payment of a fee not to exceed $200, as set by board rule, plus the actual per applicant cost to the department for purchase of the examination from the American Association of State Social Worker's Boards or a similar national organization, the department shall issue a license as a clinical social worker to an applicant who the board certifies:

(a) Has submitted an application and paid the appropriate fee.

(b)1. Has received a doctoral degree in social work from a graduate school of social work which at the time the applicant graduated was accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education or has received a master's degree in social work from a graduate school of social work which at the time the applicant graduated:

a. Was accredited by the Council on Social Work Education;

b. Was accredited by the Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work; or

c. Has been determined to have been a program equivalent to programs approved by the Council on Social Work Education by the Foreign Equivalency Determination Service of the Council on Social Work Education. An applicant who graduated from a program at a university or college outside of the United States or Canada must present documentation of the equivalency determination from the council in order to qualify.

2. The applicant's graduate program must have emphasized direct clinical patient or client health care services, including, but not limited to, coursework in clinical social work, psychiatric social work, medical social work, social casework, psychotherapy, or group therapy. The applicant's graduate program must have included all of the following coursework:

a. A supervised field placement which was part of the applicant's advanced concentration in direct practice, during which the applicant provided clinical services directly to clients.

b. Completion of 24 semester hours or 32 quarter hours in theory of human behavior and practice methods as courses in clinically oriented services, including a minimum of one course in psychopathology, and no more than one course in research, taken in a school of social work accredited or approved pursuant to subparagraph 1.

3. If the course title which appears on the applicant's transcript does not clearly identify the content of the coursework, the applicant shall be required to provide additional documentation, including, but not limited to, a syllabus or catalog description published for the course.

(c) Has had at least 2 years of clinical social work experience, which took place subsequent to completion of a graduate degree in social work at an institution meeting the accreditation requirements of this section, under the supervision of a licensed clinical social worker or the equivalent who is a qualified supervisor as determined by the board. An individual who intends to practice in Florida to satisfy clinical experience requirements must register pursuant to s. 491.0045 before commencing practice. If the applicant's graduate program was not a program which emphasized direct clinical patient or client health care services as described in subparagraph (b)2., the supervised experience requirement must take place after the applicant has completed a minimum of 15 semester hours or 22 quarter hours of the coursework required. A doctoral internship may be applied toward the clinical social work experience requirement. A licensed mental health professional must be on the premises when clinical services are provided by a registered intern in a private practice setting.

(d) Has passed a theory and practice examination provided by the department for this purpose.

(e) Has demonstrated, in a manner designated by rule of the board, knowledge of the laws and rules governing the practice of clinical social work, marriage and family therapy, and mental health counseling.

(2) CLINICAL SOCIAL WORK.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1)(b), coursework which was taken at a baccalaureate level shall not be considered toward completion of education requirements for licensure unless an official of the graduate program certifies in writing on the graduate school's stationery that a specific course, which students enrolled in the same graduate program were ordinarily required to complete at the graduate level, was waived or exempted based on completion of a similar course at the baccalaureate level. If this condition is met, the board shall apply the baccalaureate course named toward the education requirements.

(b) An applicant from a master's or doctoral program in social work which did not emphasize direct patient or client services may complete the clinical curriculum content requirement by returning to a graduate program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education or the Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work, or to a clinical social work graduate program with comparable standards, in order to complete the education requirements for examination. However, a maximum of 6 semester or 9 quarter hours of the clinical curriculum content requirement may be completed by credit awarded for independent study coursework as defined by board rule.
